Claudia Leite (Food Services Manager), Morgan Geast (Activation Manager)

Welcome

Members were welcomed and thanked for attending. The February minutes were read and reviewed. They were accepted by Jay and Jeanette.

Food Committee Report

- Claudia reviewed January food committee meeting minutes.
- At the next two Food Committee meetings the 2024 Spring/Summer menu will be discussed and residents are encouraged to attend to give feedback, make suggestions and to give final approval.
- The special meals for February were reviewed, Chinese New Year, Pancake Tuesday, Valentine's Day, Family Day and a meal for Black History Month.
- Due to Outbreaks and other events plans to tour the kitchen was postponed. It was decided by the committee that March would be a suitable time.
- Next food committee meeting will be held February 12th at 2:00 pm.

Concerns report

- No at this time.
- A discussion on how garbage is collected and disposed of was had, but no concerns at this time.

Quality Report

- Resident rights were read and discussed
RIGHT TO BE TREATED WITH RESPECT 1. Every resident has the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and in a way that fully recognizes the resident's inherent dignity, worth and individuality, regardless of their race, ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, marital status, family status or disability. 2. Every resident has the right to have their lifestyle and choices respected. 3. Every resident has the right to have their participation in decision making respected.

Recreation Report

- The February and March calendar was reviewed, and upcoming events discussed.
- Because of the outbreak, the January outing was moved to the beginning of February.
- Morgan will be visiting the different home areas to hold focus groups. Residents will have the opportunity to discuss likes and dislikes with regards to programs held in their home areas.

Meeting adjourned at 3:15 pm

The next meeting will be February 28th at 2:00 pm
